

ALTON "Tonny" CALDERWOOD'S DIARY
January 1 to December 31, 1935

transcribed by Elizabeth MacLean (help@tekchick.com)

Inscription in inside cover: Wishing you a Merry Christmas and a Happy Year, your loving sister Mercedes Calderwood.

Note: Each diary page has a small space to write the weather and thermometer reading, abbreviated here as it is in the diary as "Wea." and "Ther." When left out, it means he didn't write an entry for one or the other. Automatically corrected his spelling for 'culvert' (colvert) and 'then' (than).

Jan. 1, Tuesday	Happy New Year to All. Ken, Argyle & I stowed ice in this lower icehouse. Geo. & Harvey hauled. We got in nearly two more layers and most of it sawdusted. Had to leave off at noon as it started snowing so hard. Became such a storm the boat didn't come. Saw damp and heavy. Milked Ray's cow tonight as he's caught in Rockland. Lights went out but came back again. Signing off 10:00. Snowplow is still going as I go to bed. 4 hrs. icing Elmer J.H.
Jan. 2, Wednesday	Wea. Cool. Ther. +20°. Cleared off during the night and froze enough to make crust. Shoveled out garage and house driveway and put chains on Chev after fixing them up this A.M. Put more alcohol in her radiator and up to Frank's this P.M. to pump up tires. Out sliding with the kids here on the hill this evening. Had a good time. Was able to make the corner and go as far as the culvert. Received letter from Ann. Signing off 9:30. Much colder tonight, 12° above.
Jan. 3, Thursday	Wea. Cool. Ther. +20°. Hazy, looking like snow. Worked in this lower icehouse until 2:00, then took Geo.'s place hauling as he twisted off a drive shaft. Hauled three loads. Franze, Roy, and Frank's truck were also hauling. Have a little over six tiers in now. Up to see Beulah this evening. She has a bad knee on her where she fell down the other day. Came very near breaking it. Signing off 12:00. Received a letter from Miss Maude Saunders. She writes that Elizabeth is married. 5 1/2 hrs. by hand & 2 1/2 hrs. with truck icing Elmer.
Jan. 4, Friday	Wea. Cold & windy N.W. Ther. 0°. Heavy wind N.W. and the thermometer at zero. Is -2° now. Cut wood. Made quite a showing. Had dinner at Uncle Will's and had quite a job getting started when I got ready to come home. Have slept on couch most of evening. Signing off 12:00. Have written to Annie.
Jan. 5, Saturday	Wea. Cold but calm, warming rapidly. Ther. -2°. Cold but calm, warming up enough to thaw by night. Ray & I put 3 loads hay into the barn this morning. Snowed some northeast while we were doing it. Relaid fake tie-up floor before dinner. Up to Dalon's as soon as dinner to get crooked yoke for heifer. Corydon went with me. Hauled small load of wood for Ralph Gillis from Smelt Brook after I got home. Spent evening at home. Signing off 10:00. 3 load hay into barn this A.M. From Ralph Gillis hauling wood $.75.
